

Chef Cover Letter Example.

Dear [Insert Name]

Qualified and Experienced Chef

I apply in writing to the advertised vacancy of Chef on the Learnist.org website.

I consider that my 6 years' experience working as Head Chef in a busy local restaurant, I would be delighted to be considered for this position. I had the complete confidence of the manager of the restaurant and my proposals for new recipes were well received by management and guests alike, but I would now like to develop my career and work for a larger establishment.

With a good knowledge and understanding of all working areas of a professional kitchen including fish, roast, grill, pantry and expeditor, and with a real passion for delivering excellent service every time, I consider I would be a great asset to your company.

I appreciate that working for a reputable and first class establishment such as yours would be a real privilege and would therefore be delighted to have the opportunity to meet with you to explain what I could offer to your company.

Thank you for taking the time to read my application and I look forward to hearing from you.

Yours sincerely,
