Professional Profile I am a intelligent and cheerful delivery driver who loves driving and delivering packages to customers. I love driving, whether local or long distance, I know the best routes to use at any given time or condition, and my licence is clean and has been for 30 years. I am very strong and organised which means I can usually do more deliveries than other drivers. I pre plan my routes the night before so I am well organised.

Work History

January 2010 - Present

Delivery Driver, Bigforests Catalogue, London

Working for this large catalogue shopping provider my duty was to collect deliveries for my territory on a morning, and deliver them through the day. I worked from a pre set delivery schedule as many customers had booked specific time slots. I would load the van myself, sorting the packages dependent on the drop location, then deliver them.

January 2008- January 2010

Delivery Driver, Riverrocks Books, London.

I worked for this large book store in their main warehousing depot. It was my duty to deliver large orders to the high street stores. I would have to have good knowledge of the stores in the areas I was delivering to, to ensure I used the correct service point as some stores were in shopping complexes.

January 2007 – January 2008

Delivery Driver, Letsgo Supermarket, London

Working for this national chain of supermarkets it was my duty to deliver online shopping orders to customers in their own homes or workplaces. I would have to arrange any frozen items into the correct part of the van, before embarking on the delivery route, which I had to make myself dependent on the load I was carrying, traffic and weather factors. I would then unload the van for the customer.
