Work History January 2010 - Present

Mortgage Advisor, Halleyfarks Bank, London

Working in this large bank as a mortgage advisor it was my duty to look at the houses that my customers wanted to buy and try and find the best mortgage solution for them. I primarily dealt with first time buyers which meant that the products I offered were usually very similar from client to client, but I would have to go through everything to ensure this.

January 2008- January 2010

Mortgage Advisor, Barclees Bank, London.

As a Mortgage Advisor in this large high street bank it was my job to assist people who were looking for a re mortgage option and see if we can find them a more suitable mortgage product for their particular needs or situation. I would look at their in and out goings and see if it would be possible to get them a better rate on their mortgage.

January 2007 – January 2008

Mortgage Advisor, Batwest, London

Working for this building society it was my duty to ensure that our long serving customers were offered the very best mortgage for them, this would entail scouring the market for as many different products as possible and explaining how each work, and then arranging all the paperwork etc. for the client to make it as easy as possible for them to own their own home. I specialised in buy to let mortgages.
