Dear Sir/ Madam,

I was interested in your advertised role for an airport technician, and would like to be considered for this role.

I graduated from University, and have been working as an airport technician ever since.

I have relevant experience in this area and believe that I have all the necessary skills that you require in order for me to be an excellent airport technician.

I am highly motivated, and a good team player. I have excellent communication skills. I am very knowledgeable in the area that I work in and have strong technical skills that will make me an asset to work for your airport.

I am interested in working for you as I thrive on working in challenging environments, and excel in what others would consider stressful situations. I am highly motivated and believe that I would make an excellent fit for you.

I attach my CV with details my education and work experience. I have also included details of my references whom you may contact if you so wish.

Please note that I am immediately available to start, and can be called at any time for an interview.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Kind regards
