Dear Sirs,

I write in application for the recently advertised Ambulance Driver vacancy as listed on Learnist.org.

I am a conscientious, careful driver with a clean driving licence and work well under pressure. Having volunteered to work with the St John's Ambulance service for the past 2 years I have had invaluable opportunity to assist in a variety of first aid incidents.

For the past 3 years I have been working within a customer focused environment dealing with the public on a daily basis which has given me true insight into the difficult situations which may arise during the course of an average day.

I enclose my current CV for your consideration and hope that you will view this favourably in which case I look forward to hearing from you to arrange an interview.

Thank you in advance for your time.

Yours sincerely,
