Dear Sirs,

I was very excited to learn about your current vacancy for Store Assistant at Monsoon in Bristol and now write to apply for the position.

I thoroughly enjoy the shopping experience offered at Monsoon with an exciting variety of clothes for both daily wear and special occasion wear. The understated attention provided by the Store Assistants feels consistently welcoming and attentive without being overbearing like many other high street fashion stores.

I currently work in an office environment where maintaining customer satisfaction to ensure repeat custom is a key element of my role. Other key skills I possess which I consider relevant for this vacancy include: the ability to work effectively within a team; time management; and taking the initiative to ensure efficient working.

Please find enclosed my CV with further details for your consideration. I hope to hear from you to arrange an interview.

Yours sincerely,
