Dear Sir/ Madam,

I was interested to read of your advertised role as a restaurant manager, and would like to be considered for this position.

I have worked for restaurants in different capacities since the beginning of my career. In my last position I was manager, and from this role I gained excellent leadership and managerial skills to make a restaurant run efficiently and smoothly. I am extremely organized and a good communicator, and have excellent vision of what it takes to make a restaurant run well to ensure maximum customer satisfaction and efficiency.

I believe in obtaining customer loyalty, and that is why I never compromise on quality and customer service so as restaurant manager in my approach I make sure all staff make sure that customers are completely satisfied.

I have excellent culinary skills and have been head chef before. As a result of this I can significantly improve the standard of dishes in the restaurant. I have been previously very highly involved in training staff, and am always very happy for this to be organized.

I attach my CV and also my references, and look forward to hearing from you.

Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions about my past experiences.

Yours sincerely
